

Pharmacist-led medication support from Stellus Rx.

How does life get better for you when we work together on your health?

You receive expert answers to your questions

“What does my new diagnosis mean? How do these medicines work together? What happens if I can’t afford my medicine?” We’ve helped with thousands of questions just like these, and we’re ready to support you.

You gain a trusted partner and guide in your health journey

You connect regularly with your personal pharmacist by phone or text messages to ensure your medications are working as expected and to collaborate on achieving your health goals.

You get an ally and advocate in your care

You can turn to us for education, support and problem-solving with anything related to your medications. Think of us as a member of your care team who’s always on your side.

All of this comes at no cost for our patients.

You even have the option of having your medications pre-sorted, packaged and delivered to your door. Ask your physician or nurse about getting started today.
